

Visual and Audio Images Authorization 2015-2016

I hereby grant permission for photographic, video, and audio images of my child's activities at the Bishop John T. Walker School for Boys to be used by the School for education, outreach, and marketing, and for training of teachers and the public about the School. This permission includes likenesses of my child and our family members, and any school work. School creations will be marked with a copyright symbol.

I understand that these images may appear in forms such as display panels, videos, slides, brochures, websites, and written articles, and I agree that I am to receive no compensation for my child's or family members' appearance. These images may be used for noncommercial purposes, including charitable fundraising activities in which the School is involved.

I understand that my child's participation gives me no ownership rights to the photographs or negatives whatsoever. I also understand that the school will invite me to view these images of my child whenever possible.
